MESSAGE FROM RECTOR
UNIVERSITY OF MUHAMMADIYAH JAKARTA

Assalamualaikum wr. wb.

It is my very great pleasure to welcome you to the 1st International Conference on Social Sciences (ICSS) organized by Faculty of Social and Political Science–University of Muhammadiyah Jakarta. Over the years, we have had the privilege of hosting numerous significant delegations and international conferences. This year, we realize how important the theme of this conference titled “Towards Community, Environmental, and Sustainable Development” engaged in these proceedings are for advancing international education. To us, sustainability means meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

This conference is intended to gather Social Science Scholars and Practitioners to exchange knowledge, ideas, experience and expectations around the challenges involved with the Sustainable Development Goals.

We hope that this international event will give opportunities for close collaborations, and strategic alliances in scientific research, that will contribute efficiently towards community, environmental, and sustainable development.

Wassalamualaikum wr. wb.

Prof. Dr. Syaiful Bakhri, S.H., M.H.
RECTOR

MESSAGE FROM THE CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN

Assalamualaikum wr. wb

It gives me enormous pleasure to welcome all of you to the 1st International Conference on Social Sciences (ICSS) carried out by Faculty of Social and Political Sciences University of Muhammadiyah Jakarta (FISIP UMJ). It is truly an honor, and a privilege for FISIP UMJ to host this international conference. This year’s theme of the conference is Social and Development: Toward Community, Environmental and Sustainable Development. This aimed to discuss and solve the most intriguing situations on social and humanities issue facing by Indonesia as well as international level.

As stated in UMJ’s objective, we strive to become one of the leading faculties in South East region for 2030. We’re now intensively enhancing our networks to reach the objective. Despite offering scientific dialogue, ICSS will be our annual international conference to bring international research networks for UMJ. We have successfully invited more than 80 papers from our neighbors’ scholars from the region. We are also very grateful to our keynote speakers Prof. Mohan J. Dutta of NUS and Prof. Dr. Zulkarnain A. Hatta of Lincoln University College for their inspiring thought.

Well-known speakers and researchers from universities, government agencies, and community social enthusiast have been invited to present their views and discuss the opportunities, threat, strengths, and weaknesses of the subject. Thus, we would like to thanks to all presenters for sharing their research ideas and findings. It will definitely enrich our knowledge with a better understanding of contemporary issues in social and humanities issues.

We are pleased to present abstract proceeding book of ICSS which consist of 9 sub-themes from about 90 presenters. We do hope that this abstract book will be triggering further discussions afterward outside the conference.

Wassalamualaikum wr. wb.

CHAIRMAN
THE 1st INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SOCIAL SCIENCES
KEYNOTE SPEAKER PROFILES

Prof. Mohan J. Dutta
Provost's Chair Professor and Head of the Department of Communications and New Media
National University of Singapore

Professor Mohan J. Dutta is Provost's Chair Professor and Head of the Department of Communications and New Media at the National University of Singapore (NUS), Adjunct Professor at the Interactive Digital Media Institute (IDMI) at NUS, and Courtesy Professor of Communication at Purdue University. At NUS, he is the Founding Director of the Center for Culture-Centered Approach to Research and Evaluation (CARE), directing research on culturally-centered, community-based projects of social change. He teaches and conducts research in international health communication, critical cultural theory, poverty in healthcare, health activism in globalization politics, indigenous cosmologies of health, subaltern studies and dialogue, and public policy and participatory social change. Currently, he serves as Editor of the "Critical Cultural Studies in Global Health Communication Book Series" with Left Coast Press and sits on the editorial board of seven journals.

Professor Dutta holds a Bachelor of Technology (Honors) in Agricultural Engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Kharagpur, and a PhD in Mass Communication from the University of Minnesota. He began his career at Purdue University in 2001, was tenured in 2005, and became Full Professor in 2009. In June, 2010, he was appointed as the Lim Chong Yah Professor of Communication and New Media at the National University of Singapore (NUS), and formally joined NUS as Professor of Communication in July, 2012.

Mohan Dutta’s research examines marginalization in contemporary healthcare, health care inequalities, the intersections of poverty and health experiences at the margins, political economy of global health policies, the mobilization of cultural tropes for the justification of neo-colonial health development projects, the meanings of health in the realms of marginalized experiences in highly underserved communities in the global South, and the ways in which participatory culture-centered processes and strategies are organized in marginalized contexts to bring about changes in neo-colonial structures of global oppression and exploitation.

Prof. Mohan Dutta has published over 170 journal articles and book chapters, and was recently noted as the most published scholar in Health Communication. He has authored the book "Communicating health: A culture-centered approach" published by Polity Press, co-edited "Emerging perspectives in health communication: Meaning, culture, and power" (with Heather Zoller) published by Taylor and Francis, and "Communicating for social impact: Engaging communication theory, research, and pedagogy" (with Lynn Harter & Courtney Cole) published by Hampton Press. He has recently written the book "Communicating social change: Structure, culture, agency" published by Taylor and Francis, and the edited book "Communicating healthcare disparities" (with Gary Kreps) published by Peter Lang Press. In August 2012, Purdue University has published his book "Voices of Resistance." His recent book "Neoliberal health organizing" published by Left Coast Press explores the ways in which meanings of health circulating within dominant political, economic, and social structures of global organizing threaten human health and wellbeing.

For his scholarly productivity and contributions to health communication, Dr. Dutta was recognized as the Lewis Donohew Outstanding Scholar in Health Communication in 2006. At Purdue University, he was recognized as a University Faculty Scholar for his research productivity. Currently, he is working on the book "Imagining India in Discourse: Meaning, Power, Structure" to be published by Springer. In this book, Professor Dutta traces the particular aspirations of Indian politics, economy, and society registered in elite discourses that imagine India.
